

TIPS for the University is Proven Effective – Again!

The Center for Studies on Alcohol (Westat) conducted a study to evaluate the effectiveness of the TIPS for the University program in reducing high-risk drinking behavior. The subjects were 3,400 members of a national college fraternity. Within six months of implementing TIPS, there was a significant decline in both the frequency and intensity of drinking among the fraternity members who participated in the study.

For a complete copy of this study, visit https://www.tipsuniversity.org/about/case\_studies/westat\_study.pdf.